NACUC Holds First Virtual Roundtable Forum

More than 40 board leaders from around the country participated in NACUC's Virtual Chairmen's Roundtable Forum on Thursday, October 15, 2020. Participants met in virtual breakout rooms to discuss CEO evaluation, business continuity planning, and board performance and engagement during COVID-19. "Members wanted the opportunity to connect and share information, even if it wasn't going to be in person. Thanks to virtual technology we were able to deliver a valuable educational experience that simulated our roundtable format," commented NACUC's executive director Celeste Shelton. One participant remarked "It was a great event--the best Zoom meeting I've had so far." Another attendee noted, "We ought not to let COVID get in the way of our continued participation with others across the nation, and our continued education as board members."

Knowing that the virtual Roundtable is a viable option, NACUC will be looking into hybrid events in the future. NACUC's next Annual Chairmen's Roundtable Forum is scheduled for October 13-16, 2021 in Denver, Colorado.

Hauck and Tollefson Re-Elected to NACUC Board

On October 29 at NACUC's virtual Annual Business Meeting, incumbents Jerry Hauck of Rogue Credit Union and Pat Tollefson of Area Federal Credit Union were re-elected to three year terms on the NACUC Board. At a reorganization meeting, the Board elected new officers for the 2020-2021 term.

As newly elected Chair of NACUC, I would like to thank those of you who participated in our first virtual Leadership Development Seminar and Roundtable Forum. While missing the personal contact with friends created by past events and new contacts created each year, I have heard positive comments on the value gained.

I personally found it rewarding to see so many participants in these events. As a Board, we had established a minimum number of participants needed to proceed and were pleasantly surprised by the number that actually took part. Facilitating each session gave me an opportunity to meet many more members. I was extremely pleased with the number of first-time attendees.

These troubling times have presented us with many new challenges both at the national and local level. I appreciate your willingness to participate at both levels. It only makes us stronger when we can learn from others as we confront these challenges.

It is easy to be part of something when everything goes well. Facing a challenge, the successful meet it head on with success in mind. And, being a member of NACUC gives us a greater opportunity to become successful.

Proposed NACUC Bylaw Amendments Pass

By a majority of the members voting, two bylaw amendments were approved during NACUC's Annual Business Meeting on October 29. One amendment eliminated nominations from the floor during board elections. The other amendment allows for electronic voting and for board elections to be held prior to the annual meeting.

Memberships Renew in January

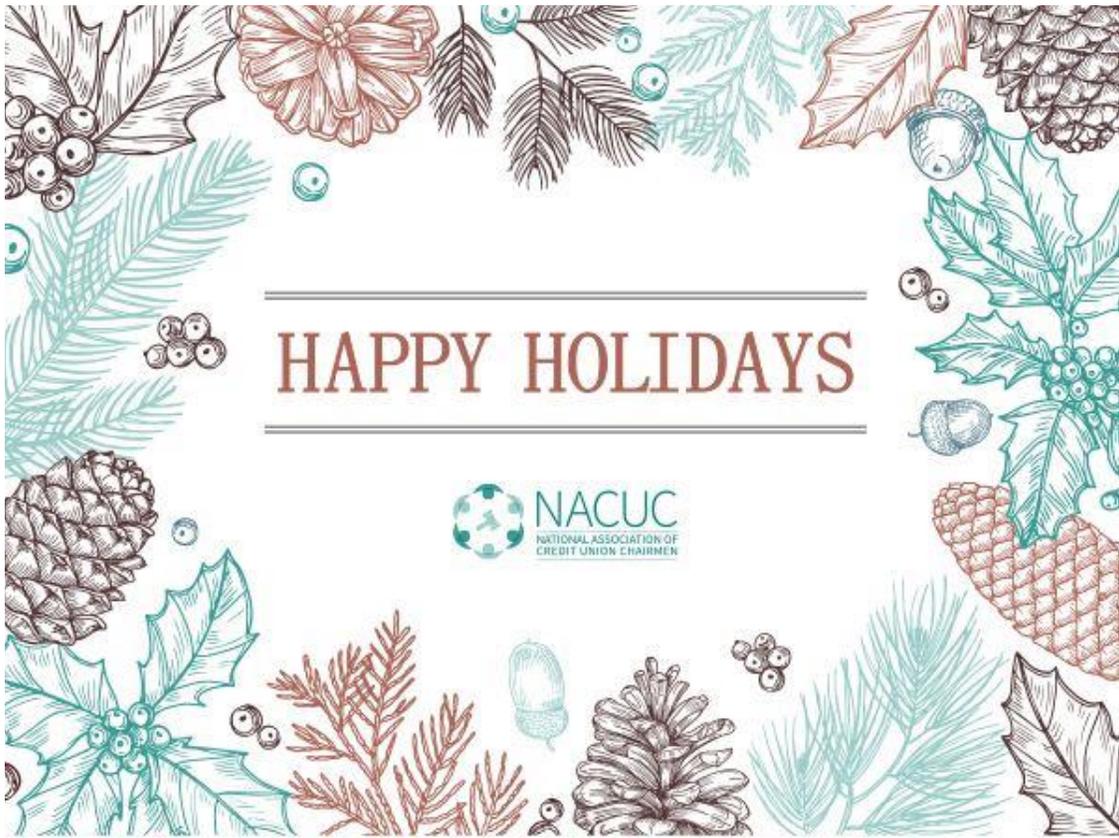

Memberships make up the lifeblood of our organization and your involvement is extremely important to our mission of bringing together credit union board leaders to share ideas and successful strategies. In fact, NACUC is the only organization in the country that is dedicated exclusively to the education, training and collaboration of board chairs and future board leaders. Watch your email inbox in January for NACUC membership renewal notices. If the billing contact for NACUC has changed at your credit union, email lauren@nacuc.org with their information. This will ensure a timely renewal and avoid a lapse in member benefits.

Connect with Peers through NACUC Listserve

With 60 members and growing, the NACUC Listserve has become a valuable resource for board chairs and directors looking for information on topics including board succession planning, term limits, philanthropic giving and, most recently, holding an annual meeting virtually during the pandemic. If you're not already subscribed and want to learn more about NACUC's Listserve email group, click here.

NACUC CEO Compensation Study Postponed

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and its anticipated impact on executive compensation data, the CEO Compensation & Benefits Report that was scheduled to be conducted in 2020 and published in December will be postponed.
