Scholarship Available for Board Leadership Training in Austin

Del Mar, CA – April 16, 2019 – NACUC will be awarding a scholarship to a board volunteer to attend the 2019 Leadership Development Seminar in Austin, Texas, June 23-25. The Norma Benson Memorial Scholarship was established to give volunteer directors from credit unions with assets under $50 million the opportunity to participate in high-level board leadership training. Scholarship information and the application can be found at <https://nacuc.org/LDS-Details>. The deadline to submit a seminar scholarship is Friday, April 26, 2019.

The Leadership Development Seminar has trained more than 700 new and aspiring chairpersons over the last three decades. In a highly interactive setting, participants engage in a two-day agenda that includes a blend of both instruction and group discussions covering a wide array of board-focused topics. Well-known credit union consultant and governance expert Tim Harrington will be conducting this year's seminar.

NACUC named the scholarship in honor of the late Norma Benson, past chairperson of Matanuska Valley Federal Credit Union. In the 30 years Benson served on the board of the Alaska-based credit union, assets grew from $18 million to approximately $250 million. In 2005, she was awarded the prestigious Eugene Ball award for her exemplary leadership efforts. She enjoyed the process of developing new leadership and recognizing individuals for their unique talents.
