NACUC Posthumous Award Honors Generations FCU's Rose Rangel

Del Mar, CA (October 27, 2022) – At NACUC's 46th Annual Chairs' Roundtable Forum in Boston, the late Rose Rangel was honored with the Gene Ball Leadership Award.

In 2002, Rangel was elected as board chair of Generations Federal Credit Union in San Antonio. Under her board leadership, the credit union saw an expansion of its field of membership by reaching the underserved in the community. The credit union received recognition for serving members of modest means and for its successful financial literacy programs. Not long after being elected board chair of the credit union, she began attending NACUC Roundtable Forums. She was elected to NACUC's board from 2009 to 2018, serving as board chair for three years.

Rangel was instrumental in creating and fundraising for NACUC's Norma Benson Memorial Scholarship Fund to give board chairs of modest means credit unions the opportunity to participate in NACUC's educational programs. She mentored many new board chairs over the years generously sharing her time and experience. Rangel often said that by helping each other, we help all credit unions and the members they serve.

Anthony Rogers, Board Director of Generations Federal Credit Union, accepted Rangel's plaque and expressed gratitude on behalf of the credit union and her family.

The Eugene Ball Award was created 20 years ago to honor an outstanding leader in the credit union movement. The award was named after the late Eugene Ball, credit union icon, past board chair of Pentagon Federal Credit Union and past chair of NACUC.
