From June 25-27, credit union board leaders will gather in historic Boston for the 2017 Leadership Development Seminar. The two-day seminar attracts both chairmen and those aspiring to the role of chairman to participate in high-level board training.

Seminar instructor Tim Harrington will lead the group sharing his expertise in board governance. And, the small group format lends itself to plenty of meaningful discussions among attendees on a wide range of topics including:

✓ Mastering the 'Governance' Process

- Understanding the board's role as the Chief Governing Body
- Assisting directors, and the board as a whole, to improve
- Guiding an effective nominating committee

✓ Effectively transferring Authority to the CEO

- Clarifying the dividing line between governing and operating
- Identifying tools to assist this process
- Creating a beneficial CEO evaluation process
- Sharing methods to strengthen the CEO compensation process
- Building a healthy CEO/Chair relationship

✓ Determining and cultivating the vision and direction of the CU

- Seeing the board as "Caretakers of the 'Flame'"
- Working with the CEO to align goals with the Vision Statement
- Developing appropriate planning measurements and establishing

CHAIRMAN'S COMMENTARY WITH MARTY GOLDMAN

I hope your 2017 is off to a great start! As I mentioned in my previous commentary, we will continue to focus on membership and enhancing the value that NACUC provides you and your board in the year to come.

More than a quarter of our chairmen have signed up to participate in NACUC's new listserve. This great tool is now available to us, so I encourage you to sign up if you haven't already. Before we had a listserve, I personally sent out an email to NACUC members asking for information about conducting a CEO/President search. I was astounded by the overwhelming response I received from fellow chairmen. It saved my board the time it would have taken to do extensive research or to pay a consultant. And, it showed me that we have an engaged group of board leaders willing to share information. I hope to see the listserve utilized as a way to connect throughout the year.

Also, the NACUC Board and staff are meeting in early March when we will be planning for the October Roundtable Forum in San Diego. Please send your topic suggestions to our Executive Director Celeste Shelton celeste@nacuc.org. This input will help us to put together timely and relevant subject matter for the October program.
